Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-27 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant has overcome all questions raised by the examiner concerning 35 U.S.C. 112 issues in the response filed 6/28/04. The claimed servo positioning system for a linear data recording system as set forth in claim 1 along with the corresponding method of servo positioning as set forth in claim 10 that includes a time-based servo signal and a timing reference signal which increases the bandwidth of the timing reference signal above the sampling rate that is used to produce a position error signal is neither taught by nor an obvious variation of the art of record. The claimed linear data recording medium (claim 19), method of claim 24 and system of claim 26 that includes a set of two or more time-based servo pulses recorded at different azimuths across a servo band which also includes a timing reference signal such that the pulses and reference signal are superimposed with respect to each other as set forth is neither taught by nor an obvious variation of the art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
